Miss Cane Agriculture Limited has pledged to support towards a project by Bowbridge Limited to produce sugarcane using the Chikwawa Irrigation Scheme, which will be supply water to the farmers through the irrigation system. "We are going to support the farmers through the Agriculture Commercialization Project (ACP) in the sugarcane," said Lowe. He said he was impressed with the new technology of growing the sugarcane using the irrigation system. "Unlike other farmers who have to wait for one year to produce sugarcane, this project will produce sugarcane twice a year," he said. The Project Manager for Bowbridge Limited, Fabiano Chimwaza said the company has spent about $13 million so far on the project. He said the company has set aside $1 million for the sugarcane farmers to buy equipment and inputs. Chimwaza said the company has also set aside $1 million for the farmers to buy equipment and inputs. "The farmers also benefit," said Lowe. "Unlike other farmers who have to wait for one year to produce sugarcane, this project will produce sugarcane twice a year."
